

PASSIONS TIC-TAC-TOE

Fill in each square with a different personal passion of yours. If possible, you can include passions related to the environment (such as hiking or picking up litter), community improvement (such as volunteering), or global causes (such as activism or donating).

Once you have completed your grid, go around the room and compare notes with other students. When you find a matching passion in both grids, sign each other's corresponding squares.