

MYSELF

You are an ordinary consumer visiting an exhibition to better understand the impacts of palm oil production on your daily life and the environment.

Think about your personal concerns about palm oil production.

OIL PALM PLANTATION OWNER

You are the owner of a large oil palm plantation in Indonesia and your international business is largely linked to palm oil production.

Think about your personal concerns and ethical dilemmas regarding palm oil production. Your aim is to develop and expand your business, but public pressure also requires you to consider how palm oil production affects the local environment and community.

OIL PALM PLANTATION WORKER

You are a Bangladeshi national working in the palm oil industry on the Indonesian island of Sumatra. During your work you often see children working in poor working conditions and using dangerous chemicals without any protective equipment.

Think about how you feel about working on an oil palm plantation and what your concerns are.

LOCAL RESIDENT ON THE ISLAND OF SUMATRA, INDONESIA

You are a member of an indigenous community on the Indonesian island of Sumatra. Your family lives near a large oil palm plantation owned by an international corporation. Your ancestors have lived on the land you live on for centuries. You hope that your descendants will be able to live here too.

Think about your feelings and concerns about large oil palm plantations and their expansion.

CONSERVATIONIST

You are a conservationist who cares about the well-being of the natural environment in general and the welfare of animal species.

Think about your concerns about palm oil production and what needs to be brought to the public's attention.

HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVIST

You are a human rights defender committed to ensuring that human rights are respected in all stages of the palm oil production.

Think about your concerns about human rights abuses in the palm oil industry and what you can do to protect the rights of these people.

You can read the Universal Declaration of Human Rights:

SUSTAINABLE PRODUCTION INSPECTOR

You are an independent inspector for sustainable palm oil production. You work with well-established NGOs that support small-scale local farmers and advocate for sustainable palm oil production that does not have a negative impact on people and nature.

Think about what sustainable palm oil production should look like and how you could convince palm oil producers to commit to it.
